Objectives of the monitoring tool WG

- To organise an exchange on information and best practices on a comprehensive monitoring of energy consumption and efficiency trends, as well as of energy efficiency policy measures by sector among EnR agencies.
- To provide detailed evaluations of energy policies implementation and provides an overall picture of the energy efficiency trends and measures by sector both at EU and national levels.
- To contribute to provide decision aid tools to monitor energy efficiency and policies in relationship with Commission provisions such as EED requirement (NEAAP) as well as EU long term strategies

Achievements

Management (since M61)

- Submission of the interim report to the Commission (October 2017)
- Payment of the interim payment (February 2018)
- EnR/DGEN meeting on ODYSSEE-MURE outputs (Sept 2017)
- Two days training session In Lisbon on Multibenefits of EE (ADENE hosting) (50 participants) (Nov 2017)

Activities (since M61)

- Re-design of the ODYSSEE-MURE web site
- Second updating of ODYSSEE (Until 2016, on going)
- Updating of MURE (end of autumn 2017)
- Development of the end-user facilities (Evaluation and Multibenefits)
- 15 Policy briefs of which 6 presented in a Webinar
- Q/A tool
- Scoreboard linking indicators and policies (on-going)
- Country profiles (on-going)

Achievement : Policy briefs

- 20 Policy briefs (4 pages synthesis with a standardised layout): 7 for buildings, 4 on industry and transport and 5 on cross-cutting issues.
- 75% already published: 3 for buildings, 4 on industry, 4 on transport and 4 on cross-cutting issues.
- The briefs are available on the ODYSSEE-MURE website in html and can be downloaded in pdf (<http://www.odyssee-mure.eu/publications/policy-brief/>) .
- Each policy brief is prepared by one of partner and reviewed by one or two other partners, and edited in English. The exact role of each partners for the review has been defined and validated: few partners need to approve.
